DECLARATION

I, Nathan Kevin Turner, declare under penalty of perjury as follows;

1. I am the plaintiff in pro se,whom will be answering and preparing to answer the Attorney Generals petition to dismiss petition for 42 U.S.C. §1983, which should be filed by June 19, 2008. In Nathen Kevin Turner v. Bonnis Dumanis, et al., United States District Court, Southern District Civil Case No. 08CV0360 W (RBB).

2. I respectfully inform the court that I will be unable to file the answer of the Attorney Generals petition to dismiss and accompanyiny Memorandum of Points and Authorities by June 19, 2008, deadline and will need a 30-day enlargement of the filing deadline, up to and including July 19, 2008. Under final deadline pursuant to California Rule of Court, rule 8.360(c)(5)(A).

3. The Court's Order directing plaintiff in pro se. to respond to Attorney Generals dismissal and Memorandum Points And Authorities pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §1983, was received on June 04, 2008.

4. Attorneys response is very detailed and lengthy with many case citations that requires research and reading and due to plaintiff's limited status as a layman at law and inability to understand the law, a 30-day extension of time is needed and necessary to file a appropriate reply.

I apologize for any inconvenience that this request for enlargement of time may cause to the Court and the Court's staff. I also apologize for not presenting this request at an earlier date.

Dated: June 11, 2008. At Vacaville, California.
